

EDF PULSE CROISSANCE

EDF Pulse Croissance, the EDF Group's investment fund

EDF is convinced that collaboration with start-ups will accelerate the net zero carbon objective. So, to create new growth drivers and innovative and competitive offers to their customers, EDF created EDF Pulse Croissance, the energy transition corporate venture capital and startups incubator of the Group. EDF Pulse Croissance has invested €250 million in more than 20 start-ups and holds a stake in some fifteen investment funds.
